A Long Sentence.

The prize for the longest sentence ever written may fairly be awarded to the elder Dumas, who probably holds a further record for fertility of production. In the seventh of the twenty-nine volumes which compose the "Impressions de Voyage," there is a sentence describing Benvenuto Cellini which fills three pages, of 108 lines, averaging forty-five letters apiece. The sentence is broken by sixty-eight commas and sixty semicolons; but as it contains 195 verbs and 122 proper names, the reader is somewhat bewildered before the end is reached.—London Chronicle.

Tommy—Paw, when you say "aw" done by congress," is 'by congress' swearing?

Mr. Tucker—Not necessarily, my boy; but it often causes a lot of swearing.—Chicago Tribune.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

No case of contagious blood poison is ever cured until the last particle of the virus has been removed from the circulation. The least taint left in the blood will sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all its hideous and destructive symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. No other medicine so surely cures contagious blood poison as S. S. S. It goes down into the blood and steadily and surely drives out every particle of the infection. It absolutely and perfectly purifies the blood, and leaves this vital fluid as fresh, rich and healthy as it was before the destructive virus of contagious blood poison entered the circulation. S. S. S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and other blemishes, the hair stops coming out, the mouth and throat heal and when S. S. S. has cleansed the system of the poison no trace of the disease is left. S. S. S. cures contagious blood poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, tested and proven for more than forty years. Book on this disease with suggestions for home treatment, and any medical advice sent free to all who write.

KEEP PEACE WITH PUBLIC OPINION

Senator-Elect Root Tells How to Keep Down War.

Founded on Justice of Peace, He Declares at Banquet Attended By Noted Diplomats.

THE TRUE BASIC PRINCIPLE

New York, Feb. 27.—The Peace Society of New York brought together around the banquet table at the Hotel Astor last night a notable gathering of men, prominent in national, state and city affairs. The dinner was in honor of Senator-elect Root, of New York, and Joseph H. Choate was the toastmaster. President-elect Taft, Governor Hughes, Right Honorable James Bryce, British ambassador; Baron Kogoro Takahira, ambassador from Japan, and Joaquin Nabuco, Brazilian ambassador, were speakers, and the guests numbered about eight hundred.

Root in his address dwelt upon the causes that led to war: "It rests with the army and navy to make aggression and injustice unprofitable and unattractive," he said. "It rests with you and me, with every woman without struggling for the right of suffrage to exercise the powers that God has already placed in our hands; of every man in the exercise of his duties, political and social, to morally move conceptions of an honorable life away from old ideas of savagery toward new ideas of civilization, of humanity, in their progress gradually to the supreme idea of Christianity.

Peace Founded on Justice. "Peace can never be except as it is founded upon justice, and it rests with us in our own country to see to it that the idea of justice prevails and prevails against the declaration of the demagogue, against the ill-timed exhortation of the politician, against hot temper of mob and of inconsiderate."

The speaker here recounted a number of causes that led to war, and continued, "the gentlemen who introduced into the legislature of California, Montana and Nevada legislation regarding treatment of Japanese in these states doubtless had no conception of the fact that they were giving to that nation of gentlemen, soldiers, scholars and scientists, of statesmen, a nation worthy of challenging and receiving the respect, honor and homage of mankind, an injury by an insult that would bring on private war in any private relation in our own country. Thank heaven, wiser heads and sounder hearts, instructed and enlightened upon true nature of proceedings, prevailed and overcame inconsiderate and thoughtless."

"But a few days ago a member of the house of representatives with no other apparent purpose than to make himself prominent by an attack upon an American charged upon the chief magistrate of the little republic of Panama, fraudulent conspiracy with regard to the contract upon negotiation by the government of that country regarding the forests of Panama. All Panama was instantly alive with just indignation.

Matter of Public Opinion. "This insult was felt all the more keenly because we, with our ninety millions and our great navy and army presented an overwhelming and irresistible force with a little republic whose sovereignty we are bound, trebly bound, in honor to maintain and respect. These are things that make for war, and if you would make peace you will frown on them, condemn them, ostracize and punish by all social penalties, men who are guilty of them, until it is understood and felt that an insult to friendly foreign power is a disgrace to the insulter, upon level with crimes that we denounce and for which we inflict disgraceful punishment by law."

"Now this is a subject for you to deal with. The government cannot reach it; laws cannot control it. Public opinion, public sentiment, must deal with it and when public opinion has risen to that height all over the world that people of every country treat the people of every country with that human kindness that binds home communities together, you will see an end of war."

BILLY SUNDAY IN HOT CHURCH FIGHT

Whipped in His New Springfield Tabernacle.

Choir and Part of Audience Continue Singing While Ex-Ballplayer-Evangelist

SUBDUES AN IRATE ILLINOISAN.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 27.—Rev. W. A. Sunday, better known as "Billy" Sunday, former baseball player—now an evangelist, was horsewhipped by a man at the "Sunday Tabernacle" where, in the presence of 3,500 persons he was conducting the opening meeting of a revival.

The evangelist had just made his opening remarks and was leaning against the pulpit on the elevated platform while a hymn was sung by his choir leader when a man, who said his name was Sherman Potts, sprang forward with a buggy whip and struck Sunday several terrific blows.

Sunday Gives Battle.

Sunday leaped from the platform and dashed at his assailant, whom he knocked down in the center of the aisle. The audience was on the verge of panic, with women weeping and children screaming while Potts and Sunday rolled and tumbled in the aisle. The choir and the audience, however, continued to sing and quiet was soon restored. Several men seized Potts and they held him until a policeman came and took him to jail.

The prisoner said his home was near Lovington, Ill. According to his statements at the jail, he was once declared insane and committed to the Jacksonville asylum, whence after a brief confinement, he was released as cured. He said he came to Springfield from Decatur today to horsewhip Sunday; that he had purchased the whip in Springfield and went to the tabernacle early. He made the attack, he said, in defense of the virtue of a woman which he declared had been criticized by the evangelist. The police say Potts is a religious fanatic.

ONLY ONE SHOT

FIRE BY LOUIS FUTRELL AT OSBURN.

Revolver Was Against Victim's Coat and Powder Burned His Garment.

Only one shot was fired when Horace B. Osburn was killed by Louis Futrell, according to the evidence given before the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon. Two empty shells were found in the revolver, and it was thought that one shot went wild, but it has been learned that the hammer was carried on the empty shell to prevent an accidental discharge. Witnesses testified that the shot was muffled, and the jury made an examination of the clothing. The overcoat of Futrell was examined, and it was thought the pistol was concealed in the pocket when fired, but that proved erroneous. The coat of Osburn was examined and a hole about two inches in diameter was burned in it, showing that the barrel of the pistol had been thrust against Osburn. The witness testified to hearing loud talking, and that Osburn had held of Louis Futrell, leading him out of the door, when Futrell shot.

The verdict was: "We, the jury, empaneled to inquire into the cause of the death of H. B. Osburn, whose body lies before us, and from the evidence that he came to his death in Paducah, Ky., February 25, 1909, as the result of a pistol ball shot from a
